Pendleton Round-Up

September 9-16

PENDLETON UNDERGROUND TOURS

Dive into the more infamous corners of Pendleton's past. Tour the underground tunnels that housed the Shamrock Card Room, red-light district, and the Chinese living quarters, jail, and opium den. No children under 6.

HAT ROCK, WALLA WALLA, & WHEATFIELD LOOP

Want to get moving? Hop on a bike and cover this scenic loop! You'll pass the iconic Hat Rock State Park and pass some great opportunities to sample red wine and sweet onions.

PENDLETON AIR MUSEUM

Step into the proud military history of Pendleton Army Air Field and learn more about the sacrifices Pendleton residents have made throughout the decades to protect our nation.

PENDLETON RIVER WALK

Stretch your legs and follow the south bank of the Umatilla River along the levee. You can enjoy several parks and city landmarks just off the trail, and spot many types of birds.

CHILDREN'S MUSEUM OF EASTERN OREGON

Keep kids busy with a wide range of educational exhibits and hands-on activities.

PENDLETON CENTER FOR THE ARTS

Admission is free to see fine art, jewelry, textiles, ceramics, glass, and hand-printed cards by more than 80 artists.

TAMASTSLIKT CULTURAL INSTITUTE

Immerse yourself in the history and traditions of the Cayuse, Umatilla and Walla Walla Tribes.

STAPLEMANS CUSTOM BOOT SHOP

Staplemans Custom Boot Shop hosts four artisans that make and repair custom leather boots, shoes, belts, chaps, bags, and more.

PENDLETON WOOLEN MILLS

Pendleton, a major rail-head serving the Columbia Plateau, was a wool shipping center for sheep growers of the region. Today the mill stands on the same foundation as it did in 1909.
